FROM THE EAST.

Circular from the General Passenger and Ticket Agents.

An Advance Step in Theater Building—Indicates for Perferry—A Big Bust of Counterfeiter Tools—War of Races, Etc, Etc.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The general passenger and ticket agents of the roads in the Transcontinental Association have issued a circular in accordance with that of the Topeka Company, directing the contractors of roads with the Transcontinental Agents from San Francisco to all points in Oregon, Washington Territory and British Columbia, and all tickets to San Francisco via the roads of the Transcontinental. The general passenger agents of roads West in this city are in receipt of the information that Commissioner Pierson has ordered that the roads be closed to all passengers selling through tickets from the East to points West of Chicago and St. Louis. This is out of the line of the all roads growing out of ticket sales. The new regulation of the companies compels travelers to purchase a ticket after reaching the first city, and the action of the Commissioner has caused universal wrath among the officials of the Western roads.

An Advance Step in Theatrical Business.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—J. H. Haverty says he is about to build two new theaters—one in this city and one in Philadelphia. The money is to be furnished by Chicago capitalists, but he is to have the management of the buildings and furnishes the theaters. The site of the New York theater is already being cleared. He proposes to build out the plan of the London Alhambra, at a cost of $1,200,000. It is to be the largest and handsomest theater in the country. The seating capacity is to be 4,000. The Philadelphia theater is not to be constructed on such an extensive scale but on the same plan. Haverty expects to begin building next spring and will be ready for opening on November 1st.

A Big Bust of Counterfeiter Tools.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The police found in Division street, in which was a workshop used by Bremen, the engraver, a number of counterfeiter's tools and some tracing paper, with the forged signatures of Land Stanford, C. P. Huntington and Speyer bankers, of London, bankers.

Black Bart.

BERMUDA, Nov. 14.—The Democratic procession in the streets here last evening was stoned by negroes at three points along the line of march. One who was caught in the act was wounded.

The New York Jewelers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The leading jewelers of this city have followed the lead of the railroads and will adopt the new standard time.

Industries for Forgery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Wm. E. Brooks, Lewis Martin and James Foster have been indicted for forgery in the first degree.

PACIFIC COAST.

"Black Bart," the Poetical High- wayman, is known to be "Black Bart," the famous poetical highwayman, was arrested here last Monday night by J. B. Hume, special detective of Wells, Fargo & Co. The master has been kept secret, but it is doubtless existed as to whether he was the highwayman or not. It seems that the man arrested had been in the habit of spending his winters during the last six years in the city of San Francisco, and was known as Mr. Bolton. He was arrested at No. 37 Second street where he was at the habit of staying. He took everything in his way, and it was said that it was a case of mistaken identity. He has been taken to the station, where it is to be hoped he will be identified by an old hand who resides there.

PRENTISS.

AT A banquet tendered yesterday to Ambassadors, by the City of Oregon, and ladies of this city, Dr. Oliver C. Storck, presented the Archishop with a magnificent ring containing a large sapphire, surrounded by diamonds. The banquet took place at Dr. Storck's. Archishop Alce man groaned the advent of his conductor in the warmest terms.

JACK SHAY DEAD.

PRENTISS, A. T., Nov. 14.—Jack Shay, who was shot by Monroe without provocation, died at the hospital this afternoon. An inquest will be held to-morrow. The room in which he died is the same as that in which Big Jim died, who was shot by Shay over a year ago.

A JUVENILE MURDERER CAUGHT.

PORTLAND, Oreg., Nov. 14.—Charles B. Finlayson, the boy charged with murdering his stepmother, which was reported on the 3rd instant, was captured near Willows. He acknowledged the deed and said he struck her with an axe, because he angered her.

FOREIGN.

Preparations for O'Donnell's Trial Well Advanced.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Preparations for O'Donnell's defense are well advanced. Judge A. French had a long and satisfactory interview with the prisoner to-day, the first since his arrival. McNealy, of O'Donnell's counsel, has brought from Ireland a mass of evidence, and he feels that the trial will be a long and tedious one. The defense is in full force, and it is evident that the trial will be a long one.

AMERICAN CATTLE IN ENGLAND.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—It is stated that Henry Chapon, Member of Parliament for Lincolnshire, proposes to continue his efforts to induce the government to restrain the importation of cattle from the United States, which is steadily increasing.

TUNNELING THE ALPS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The boring of a tunnel through the Arlberg branch of the Alpine Alps is completed.

Shooting near San Diego.

An Indian was brought to the county hospital at Mission Valley on Monday night from San Pasqual, suffering from a bullet wound which he received over a week ago. Dr. Storck, who had been visiting him yesterday, and found that the ball had entered the body near the pit of the stomach, and was protruding downward, struck the hip bone, and was out. They were unable to extract the ball. The Indian was a very strong man, and it is the man's receiving no treatment for so long after being shot. The Indian stated that he had a son a Mexican, named Antonio Morales, without the slightest protection. Morales has not yet been arrested, but doubtless will be.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1883.

A BLOODY RECORD FOR 1883.

The records of the coroner's office in this city show that in this county up to date inquests have been held on the bodies of ten murdered persons. This record is the worst Los Angeles has shown for many years and the fact is becoming unpleasantly prominent abroad. The men of wealth and culture we so much desire to see coming here as visitors and permanent residents, can scarcely fail to be impressed with the frontier-like disregard of human life becoming so common in a city and county which boasts of rapid progress in culture and civilization, and the effect will be to deter many such from their first intention. Another consideration which is forcing itself on tax-payers is the enormous expense of the murder and other trials of a serious character, owing to frequent disagreements of the juries—sweat to try the cases according to law and evidence. The cost in some of these cases is simply appalling and the bills of the county this year for criminal business will not be a very cheering spectacle to the people who foot the bills.

The sacredness of human life must be respected, and the people when awakened to their duty will undoubtedly perform it. A majority of the population of this section is as law-abiding as that of any other portion of the United States, but the law must not much longer be permitted to be a mere farce. The bloody record of 1883 must not and will not be repeated in 1884—the people will see to it that it is not. Public sentiment is being aroused on every hand and not much longer will criminals be turned loose on the community with their hands stained with the blood of their fellow beings.

FACTS FOR THE PUBLIC.

Los Angeles may safely at present claim the largest number of newspapers, to her reading population of any city in the country, and yet several more are coming to the front "to supply a long-felt want." It is true the more there are the merrier, and may they all meet with prosperity, if they deserve it. Yet one fact should be borne in mind by the reading and advertising public, and that is that the established newspapers of the city have been putting all the profits accruing from their business into their several journals and will make other improvements as fast as patronage will warrant them. If there were only half as many papers in the city as there are at present the people would be much better served with news, and the almost incessant and wearisome demands for patronage made upon our business men would be greatly lessened. There is no desire to throw any cold water upon new journalistic enterprises, but the facts stated above ought to be well understood.

THE COMING MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Next month a very important municipal election is to be held in this city, which ought to be carefully looked after by all good citizens. It is true that only a few councilmen and other minor officers are to be chosen, but the election is nevertheless of the greatest importance to tax-payers. It is of even more interest, so far as their actual everyday life is concerned, than the national elections of next year. Important questions are to come up in regard to irrigation and many other municipal improvements. All property holders will have an interest in this election, and if they neglect their duty, they will suffer therefore. The question whether the Democracy or the Republican party succeeds next year pales into insignificance to the tax-payer with a limited income, before the question whether he will have to pay next year two or three per cent. upon what little property he possesses.

MATTHEW ARNOLD will have a tough time if he comes among the barbarians of the wild and bounding west. He said in an essay in the Nineteenth Century Review: "Not one man in 100,000 has either the manners or cultivation of a gentleman, or changes his shirt more than once a week, or eats with a fork." A horrible fear takes possession of us that Mr. Arnold may come to California and enter into an offensive league with Preston, the Stockton Herald, against the other 99,999.

They are building in the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's Green Island shops, a snow plow 29 feet long by 10 feet wide, and 10 feet six inches high, which will be able to plow 100 feet to push it. The idea of anybody living in a country where such an implement is necessary!—[San Jose Times.]

The idea of anybody living in California in whose higher mountains the snow-plow has its winter home.

These fellows who smear at our "little army" and "old hulk" of a newspaper behind their backs—Uncle Sam can move that old flag from the top of the National Capitol, or from some peak on the Rocky Mountains, and sound a bugle call, and ships will fall in line and 1,000,000 would answer "Present." Uncle Sam is not a boy, and don't you forget it.—[Exchange.]

Bring the slight exaggeration in the above, which represents Uncle Sam, in his conventional tight trousers with stripes onto 'em, leaping from crag to crag of the Rocky Mountains, wildly waving the American flag in one hand, and blowing a bugle blast with the other, (if that's the way a bugle blast is blown,) the above utterance by an esteemed and patriotic temporary goes straight to the spot. Let the effete monarchies of the old world, and all concerned, not forget to remember that of the million and a half of men, more or less, who would answer to roll-call, if need be, not less than half a million would be veteran soldiers, who have "bin that." And let the effete monarchies aforesaid also bear in mind that the fighting weight of half a million trained veterans is something immense, even if age doth come on them space.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR thinks it is settled that the Democratic nominee for the Presidency will not come from east of the Alleghenies, and that the coming Presidential campaign will be fought out in Indiana, Ohio and New York. We believe the President is sound on the last proposition. The Republican policy in 1884 will be not to throw away ammunition on the solid and Bourbon South, but to make a cordon of heavy artillery around the three States named, where will be our political point d'appui.

SACRAMENTO is the latest example of the easy-going-deadly-care character of many of our California municipal governments. Two rival Chinese clans lately had a pitched battle in their streets, and fought for some time, killing and wounding several. No arrests seem to have been made by the police, and the next time the enterprising Celestials will perhaps import a few canons, and then we shall see whether bomb shells can wake up the sleepy authorities of the city.

MEN AND WOMEN.

There is a town in Missouri that grows so fast, and there is a railroad through it with time so slow, that a train which left the station here, having not cleared the suburbs yet.—[Englewood Sunday School Paper.]

A Massachusetts man who fell out of an apple tree published a card to express his appreciation of his neighbor's kindness while he was disabled, and it read very much like a Thanksgiving proclamation.

The Washington Republican notes

the fact that Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the New York World, alludes to himself as "ourselves." Possibly this is a typographical error. Mr. Pulitzer is generally in the way of writing it "ourselves."

CURRENT NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Nebuchadnezzar's wife was the original grass-widow.

Incompatibility of temper is keeping Mr. and Mrs. Irving apart.

Elephant (High School).—Yes, dear, the young of the caterpillar is the kittenpillar.

Mr. Edmund Yates' book of reminiscences, "Fifty Years of London Life," will soon be brought out.

Bühl furniture is to be all the rage, and already the dealers in bric-a-brac have begun to buy up the market.

At midnight in his guarded tent the turkey's dreaming of the hours alluded to in the Thanksgiving proclamations.

The deer and buffalo along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad are being exterminated by over a thousand hunters.

Some Englishmen who went out to New Zealand to work a derrick, have been quietly told by being told that cannibals never eat hoisters.

Mr. Tilden's yacht has been dry-docked to be repaired. She will be fitted with a presidential boom, and there will be a locker for shot as big as a bar'l.

The Merchant Traveler says to buyers, "Don't talk!" There was once a man who stood on the shore of a pond and cried to the ducks, "Don't swim."

The "old ticket" does not necessarily mean Tilden and Hendricks, the latter not being considered indispensable. Tilden and Hadley would answer, and in this case the two would be rebuked with the simple telegram and the Crouching (Kansas City Journal).

THE LAND AND RENT QUESTION.

To the Editor of the Times:

In your impression of the 4th inst., I have seen a letter on the subject of rent, from a writer who signs himself "Freedom." It is evidently the last of a series which have appeared upon the subject, but which I as a perfect stranger, have had no opportunity of seeing. Nevertheless, I should be glad to put forward in your columns, what the valuable space at your command will allow it, a few of the most obvious reflections suggested by "Freedom's" letter. Criticising a prevalent opinion, it is well to say, with great propriety, that "the rent of land or of buildings is a matter of no importance to us, the object being essentially to hit the right nail on the head." That criticism I gladly accept as in every way correct.

The proceeds to his nail upon the head by asserting that, after all, for a grammar, or a poet, or a philosopher, "to rent or not to rent," just as with the ordinary would-be purchaser of goods it is "To buy or not to buy." The point is, that a distinction is made between the two. I am sure that the Land of John Stuart Mill, of Herbert Spencer, of Henry George, and of the whole school of land-law reformers, is best off. There is a distinction, and an enormous distinction, between the two. The distinction is this: Land is limited in quantity, and the people of the United States, and of the world, are limited in quantity, to find out this out in their bitter strife. It is, moreover, the only bank from which mankind, with all its industry and of course, its wealth, draws its funds. Land is the ring of monopolists seize and hold this ring, and in their hands, and their almighty key of the ring.

An illustration will make my meaning clear. It is not often cited, but which gave rise to a remarkable book by Mr. George, and which is called "The Land Tax." I do not know Mr. Gilbert and I never canvassed for his book. In the part of London which we call "the city," there were numerous narrow streets and alleys, teeming with life. It is not denied that there were grossly overcrowded, and in unsanitary condition, in proportion, in the interest of both health and comfort, it seemed to pull down these houses, and to make room for a remodeled city. Mr. George, however, has never been here.

It is not denied that there were grossly overcrowded, and in unsanitary condition, in proportion, in the interest of both health and comfort, it seemed to pull down these houses, and to make room for a remodeled city.

I do not know Mr. Gilbert and I never canvassed for his book. In the part of London which we call "the city," there were numerous narrow streets and alleys, teeming with life. It is not denied that there were grossly overcrowded, and in unsanitary condition, in proportion, in the interest of both health and comfort, it seemed to pull down these houses, and to make room for a remodeled city.
